

Blending Clinical Practice and Research
HIV and Hepatitis C in Substance Abuse Treatment

General Sources of Hepatitis C and HIV Information on the Internet

<http://www.guideline.gov/> Collected Guidelines from international sources

<http://aidsinfo.nih.gov/guidelines> NIH Guidelines on HIV

Coinfection with HCV and HIV

http://www.cdc.gov/hiv/pubs/facts/HIV-HCV_Coinfection.htm

Hepatitis C

General Information

<http://www.cdc.gov/ncidod/diseases/hepatitis/c/>

Management

<http://digestive.niddk.nih.gov/ddiseases/pubs/chronichepc/index.htm>

An Overview of HCV Care and Treatment

<http://www.nastad.org/documents/public/ViralHepatitisPrograms/2004714AnOverviewofHepatitisCCareandTreatment.pdf>

Patient Information from the National Institutes of Health

An Overview of Viral Hepatitis A through E

<http://digestive.niddk.nih.gov/ddiseases/pubs/viralhepatitis/index.htm>

What I need to know about hepatitis C

http://digestive.niddk.nih.gov/ddiseases/pubs/hepc_ez/index.htm

HIV

CDC Guidelines on Testing, Counseling and Referral

<http://www.cdc.gov/mmwr/preview/mmwrhtml/rr5019a1.htm>

US Preventive Service Task Force Recommendations on Screening and Counseling

<http://www.ahrq.gov/clinic/uspstf/uspshivi.htm>

<http://www.ahrq.gov/clinic/uspstf/uspstds.htm>

Opportunistic Infections

http://aidsinfo.nih.gov/guidelines/op_infections/OI_112801.html

Patient Information

“HIV and It’s Treatment” What you should know.

http://aidsinfo.nih.gov/other/cbrochure/english/cbrochure_en.html

Related Topics

Treatment of Tuberculosis

<http://www.cdc.gov/mmwr/preview/mmwrhtml/rr5211a1.htm>