

Issues of Race and Ethnicity in

Substance Abuse Treatment

José Szapocznik, Ph.D.
chair

Presenters

Lawrence Brown, M.D.

Daniel Santisteban, Ph.D.

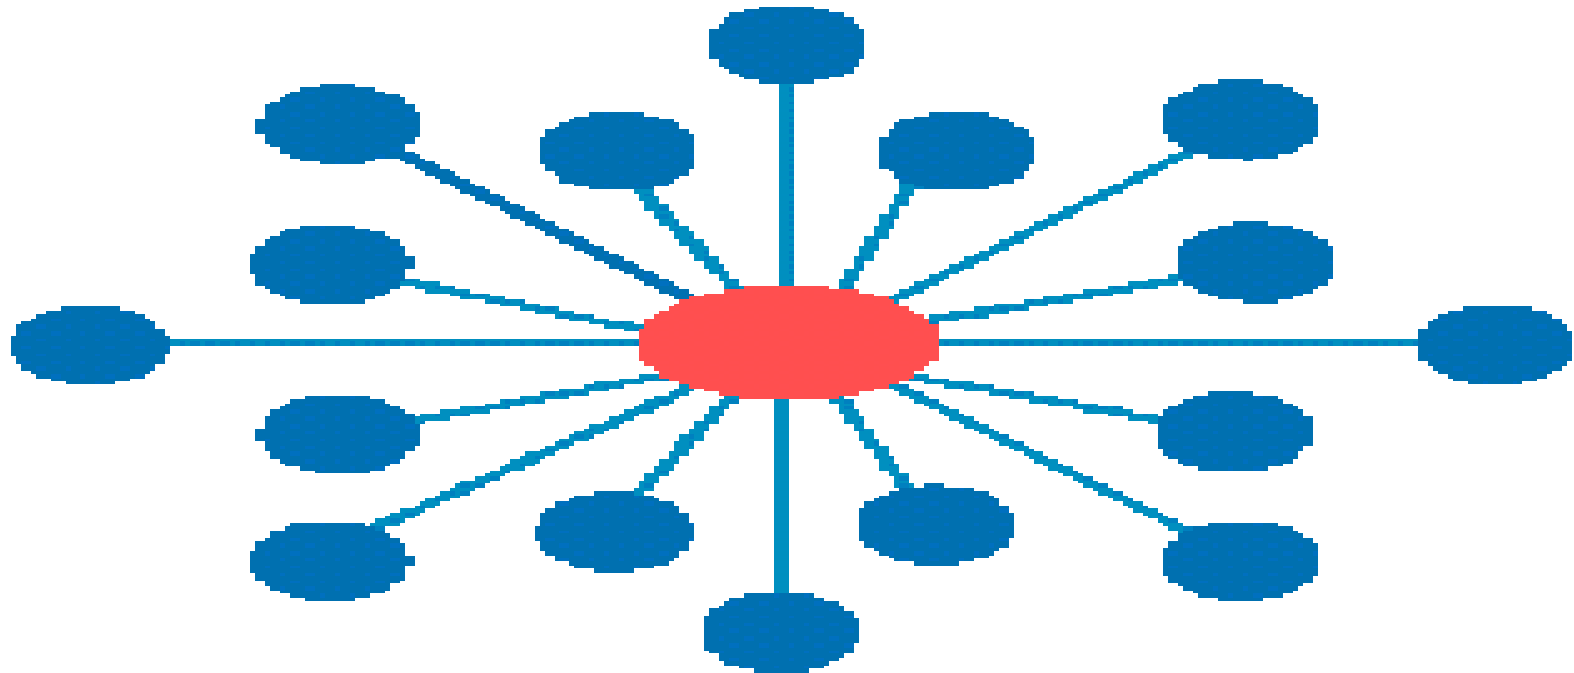

Dale Walker, M.D.

Minorities comprise $\frac{1}{4}$ of US population

Receive less drug treatment services, are less satisfied with the services they receive, and have greater consequence from drug use than mainstream groups, particularly HIV and criminal justice involvement

Therefore bringing empirically supported services to minority drug abuse clients is an urgent public health need.

Issues of Race and Ethnicity in

Substance Abuse Treatment