AREA PROFILE

At 250,000 and growing strong, Lincoln is one of the Midwest's fastest-expanding metro areas. Blessed with a legacy of planned development and growth, Lincoln is a vibrant community with great appreciation for life's finest pleasures—food, art, music, sports, and the outdoors—all more affordable and accessible than in the nation's major cities, and served with a generous helping of Midwestern hospitality. Whatever you choose to do, Lincoln is a city worth getting to know better.

The Holiday Inn Hotel- Lincoln Downtown is located in the center of downtown Lincoln, Nebraska, nestled in the heart of Lincoln's Historic Haymarket District and within walking distance to many of the finest restaurants and shops Lincoln has to offer. While you are in Lincoln be sure to visit Nebraska's State Capitol, the University of Nebraska Lincoln, (home to the Cornhusker's) and the recently opened multi screen theatre, The Grand, all within walking distance of the hotel.
